MARRIED..DEATHS..

THOMPSON-CROSS—In Knoxville, Tenn., on January 31, Mr. Charles French Thompson and Miss Mattie Walker Cross, of Dosssett, Tenn., were married by Rev. Jas. A. Lyons.

Mr. Thompson is a valued employee of the Mason & Hoge Co., at Welch, W. Va., and is a son of Mr. L. P. Thompson, of this city. His bride is said to be a pretty and popular young lady.

The news, though late in getting here, will cause congratulations to be extended the happy young people.

MILLER-GOOD — Friends of the contracting parties have received announcements of the approaching marriage of Mr. Markham Miller and Miss Minnie Myrtle Good, which will occur at St. Paul, Minn., on Saturday, April 8th.

Mr. Miller is well known here, where his father, Rev. Dr. Chas. W. Miller, was pastor of the Methodist Church. He is a hustling young business man of Lexington, Ky.

His bride is said to be a splendid young lady—pretty and popular.

DON'T BORROW TROUBLE.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease, and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At all druggists. Price 50c. Guaranteed.

SCHLOSSER—At his home at Thorn Hill, on Monday night, Mr. Joseph Schlosser, aged about 43 years, of pneumonia.

Mr. Schlosser was an industrious and clever gentleman. He was a member of the Bethel Baptist Church.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. B. Adams, on Wednesday afternoon. He was buried by his brethren of the Junior Order of American Mechanics.

He leaves an aged father and sister, a wife and five children to mourn his untimely death.

GAY—At the home of his daughter, Mrs. Howard H. Rodman, on Saturday night, March 25, Capt. W. L. Gay, aged 63 years.

Capt. Gay had been a brave and gallant soldier of the Lost Cause, and was badly wounded in several battles, so that his life was despaired of. He was a genial and companionable gentleman, and made friends wherever he went. He was the owner of an extensive and valuable plantation in Mississippi, a few hours ride from Memphis, Tenn. He had spent the greater portion of his life in the management of his plantation.

Several years ago his only child and daughter married Mr. Howard H. Rodman, of this city, and Captain Gay and his devoted wife had spent the greater portion of the time here, especially since his health had failed from the effects of wounds received in battle. His brave and gentle spirit buoyed him up until the last and he passed gently and quietly over the river.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. B. Chinn, of Ascension Episcopal Church, on Monday, and the remains were laid to rest in our cemetery.

He leaves the wife of his youth, one daughter and four grandchildren to mourn his departure.

GARRETT—At the home of her daughter, Mrs. John H. Barnett, in Versailles, on Sunday, Mrs. Amanda Garrett, of Kansas City, Mo., aged 80 years, of pneumonia.

Mrs. Garrett was an old-time Christian woman—a devoted wife, mother and friend. She was formerly a resident of Versailles, but for many years had lived in Kansas City, Mo. She was a devout member of the Baptist Church. The funeral services were conducted on Wednesday afternoon, in Versailles, by Rev. Dr. J. F. Williams, pastor of the Baptist Church, and the remains were laid away in the cemetery at that place.

A pathetic feature was the fact that Mrs. Garrett had only been on a visit of a few days to her daughter when she was called to her home on high.

We tender our sincerest sympathy to the bereft children.

Mrs. M. Duck Helm will dressmake, 514 East Main.

A lazy liver makes a lazy man. Burdock Blood Bitters is the natural, never failing remedy for a lazy liver.

STAMPING GROUND.

Mrs. Martha List, of Cincinnati, visited her parents, Capt. G. W. White and wife, this week.

Mr. A. Ford was in Louisville for several days last week.

Mr. L. C. Kenny, of Shelby county, has moved to what is known as the Judge Lewis farm.

Miss C. E. Thomason and Mr. Elza King have returned from a winter stay in Indiana.

Rev. G. W. Hill has had as his guests Mr. John Hill and Miss Annie Hill, of Cincinnati.

We regret to learn that Miss Mattie Kelly's condition is not at all satisfactory. She is suffering greatly from la grippe.

Mr. Jos. Thomas and family and Mrs. Sallie Jewett have moved from Great Crossings to Mrs. Martha Lindsey's.

The prospect for wheat is improving rapidly. Fields that were almost bare a few weeks ago now show good stands.

The rainy weather of last week caused a cessation of farming work, but the fine weather this week has started the plows to running on the uplands.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. G. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c.; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

(For the Roundabout.) MARCH—WEATHER.

I.

The weather is a country lass, I found this true—to-day:
When through the wet and tangled grass,
She led March out—to-day,
Both laughed and sang in sweet refrain,
Quarreled, and then made friends again.

II.

The weather is coquettish maid, I knew so by her face;
So shy as she and so afraid,
To trust March's rude embrace.
And when he whispered in her ear,
She ran away, and would not hear.

III.

The weather is decided blond, With tender skies of blue;
Affectionate and very fond, Of moods and tempers too.
The lamb is basking in the sun
The Lion's share will soon be won.

IV.

The weather is a woman grown, As faithful as the rest,
And when March claimed her as his own
She wept upon his breast.
No matter if he storms or blows,
She'll follow whereso'ere he goes.

A TRIED AND TRUE FRIEND.

One Minute Cough Cure contains not an atom of any harmful drug, and it has been curing Coughs, Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough so long that it has proven itself to be a tried and true friend to the many who use it. Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., says: "Coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. After trying a number of remedies to no avail, One Minute Cough Cure entirely cured me." Sold by J. W. Gayle.
